57 Rocket

New Haven

High School

New Haven, Michigan

Dedicated—

To our Mothers and Fathers-- whose interests have been in the improvement of our lives-- whose love and encouragement have been inspirational and whose never ending sacrifices have made possible these four years of high school--we respectfully dedicate
"The Rocket" of 1957.

Board of Education

George Neely, Secretary; Theodore Matthews, President; Robert Schindler, Trustee; Edward Siefer, Superintendent; Arthur Teschler, Trustee; Frank Lemmon, Treasurer, Dorothy Hewelt.

The present board of education has been an active group. Together with the superintendent they have planned new facilities, for the children of this school district and have seen their plans materialize. In the past two years we have seen eight new elementary rooms, a new gymnasium-auditorium, a new shop, science and home economics rooms, a new cafeteria, and a new bus garage built and equipped. This has been no easy task and it is to the board of education and the superintendents credit that these forward-looking plans have been completed.

They are not resting however, for there is much to be done. With the increasing population of this area, many problems will arise and judging from past actions, the people of this community can be assured the problems will be taken care of in the best way possible.

New Haven High School is accredited by the University of Michigan and is also a Michigan College Agreement School. The students can choose from a wide variety of subjects and have some of the finest instructors available teaching them.

Class Prophecy

It is now the year of 1973 and as we attend the Alumni Banquet of New Haven High, we see many of the students of 1957 gathered around the table.

First we talk to the class president, ACE CLOTFELTER, who now is president of Grandma Gerties Snappy Garters. Seated next to Ace is DICK SIEFERT, who was once the bestdressed Senior boy. Now he owns and operates the second hand dress shop on Broadway in Mt. Clemens. JOAN KUCHENMEISTER, the secretary of the class of '57, now cleans guitar strings for Elvis Presley. NINA BRIDGEMAN, treasurer of our class, is now billed in the circus as the world's tallest woman.

Going down the row we also see Student Council member MARIE VAN DE WATER, who is now a powderpuff paratrooper and takes orders from Buck Private Alexy. LEE PHILLIPS, male member of the Student Council in that year, who skipped school many a winter day to play hockey, is now a star for the world champion Detroit Red Wings.

Seated at the head of the table is NANCY LUCHTMAN, who is now Mrs. Kandt, and in her spare time has the job of taking embroidery out of pillowcases. Then we spy BUTCH CALHOUN, who owns her own Hot Rod Repair Shop down in Mt. Clemens.

Our basketball star of those years, STAN GLEASON, isn't here tonight because at the moment he is travelling around the world with the world famous Harlem Globe-trotters.

BARBARA BRILL, gossip columnist for the New York Daily Tribune, has just finished talking to SIGRID ERIKSSON, a scrub woman on the Transcontinental Boat Line to Sweden.

LYLE BEAVNIER isn't doing too badly either. We find he makes gloves for 4 1/2 fingered men. Alongside Lyle sits KEN SCHRAMM, who raises giant tsetse flies in the Ubangi Swamp. Near him is FRED DRIELTS, who makes glue for broken hearts.

MARION KNUST, who is now a famous accordion soloist with Spike Jones, is talking to her old friend BETTY BLACKBURN, now a Baroslevitsinski missionary.

BARBARA BLAKE, wife of Fred Drielts, has brought her twelve little Drielts's and is talking to DORIS DESELM about her fifteen little ones (parakeets, that is).

Seated next to Barbara is CARL CENDROWSKI, known all through high school as Cheyenne, now emcee's the Time for Beany show.

ANNE KNIFFEL lives at an Old Maid's Home and pays her board by plucking old maid's chin hairs. Seated next to her is NELSON STEINER, an international war correspondent for Kenvosmerlowski, the capital of Boo.

Being a triplet in the Senior Play must have affected GLORIA HAGEN and ROSEMARY TOMASOVIC, for they each have two sets of their own.

LEON SEITER, who was a great violinist in this class, now has taken George's place on T.V. He is talking to RICHARD CIBOR, who is president of the U.S.A. (United Stealers Association, that is.) TIGER JOHNSON is now an internationally famous horse trainer (Horse flies, that is.)

HAZEL DODDS, who was very quiet in school, now is the sound effects woman on ALICE ADAMS Bop Show.

JOHN CHAFFEE now works for the Lucky Strike Cigarette Company as a Nicotine Inspector. PAUL SCHULTZ is now the world's famous artist. He draws flies.

BOB TESSMER and CAROL NOLAN are teamed up as a circus act as the skinniest man and the fattest woman.

IRENE SAKOWSKI, who is now Mrs. Van DeWater, is chatting with MARY ALBERS, the great opera singer in JOHN SKAWSKI'S production "The Floating Petunia", which is now playing in CHARLES PILLIVANT'S Opera House in Meade.
